Customer Reviews

Written by his wife, Ursula, this is as authoritative as it gets. Filled with details, anecdotes, facts, histories and stories with a warmth that invites us to know and understand RVW as a person and as a composer. I came to this book after reading many books about Gustav Holst. In doing so, I quickly learned of his friendship with RVW. The two were great friends. In this book, you get another perspective on that friendship and friendship with others. RVW was a kind, open, down-to-earth individual. This is a remarkable biography about a remarkable human being. I'm glad he lived and wrote the music he shared with us all. This book helped me to understand the man and his times and his music. Highly recommended!

One of my favorite composers. Book in good condition. Thank you.

Good book nicely presented
