Mark Wallinger: Labyrinth: A Journey Through London's Underground (Art On The Underground)

Synopsis

Celebrating London's Underground, Mark Wallinger (born 1959) created a vast work of public art. In each of the 270 stations, he placed a uniquely designed labyrinth, which this volume documents, with photographs of all 270 labyrinths in situ.

Customer Reviews

What a wonderful book! The little stories about the histories of the stations are fascinating, on top of the wonderful art that the labyrinth pictures make. The book was a lot bigger than I expected too - around 12" square, and probably about 2" deep!

This was a great book not only about labyrinths, but the history of the London Underground.
