Customer Reviews

This book is a phenomenal collection of the most recent praise songs in lovely arrangements. My only suggestions for the product that would make it better would be if chords were included and also lyrics/words, maybe a page with words at the beginning of each song, so if someone wanted to use the arrangements to sing, the words would be handy.

I really like the variety and the arrangements. However, the cover indicates that the level is intermediate to early advanced. I disagree. It is maybe late intermediate, but not any more challenging than that.

Some nice arrangements, but there were a lot more contemporary Christian songs and a lot fewer traditional hymns than I was expecting, and pretty much every single one of them has at least one gratuitous key change, some more than one.

Great arrangements of praise choruses that don't take a lot of practice. Love the variety, as does the congregation.

Love be this book for a short notice of needing prelude. Easy to play but sounds nice as prelude.
